

Nancy Harlene Grimes Burns

March 2, 1953 - July 24, 2024

Ms. Nancy Harlene Grimes Burns, 71, of Ashdown, AR, entered into the Kingdom of Heaven on Wednesday, July 24th, 2024 in Texarkana, Texas. Nancy was born March 2nd, 1953, in Ashdown, AR, to Harlan Andrew and Mary Jane (Janie) Wilson Grimes.

She graduated from Ashdown High School in 1971. Nancy was a lifelong member of Richmond United Methodist Church. She enjoyed Sunday dinners, and spending time with family and friends. She was faithful to the care of her parents as they became older. She enjoyed cooking, playing Yahtzee and swinging on the porch. She was a wonderful mother, and grandmother.

Nancy began her career at Little River Memorial Hospital in 1974. She was a Purchasing Agent and a Pharmacy Technician. She was a devoted employee for 49 years until her retirement in 2023. Nancy loved her job, co-workers, helping patients and visiting with them. She made many lifelong friends along the way.

Nancy was preceded in death by her parents, Harlan and Janie Grimes, two brothers Richard Wayne Grimes, James Edward Grimes & beloved Sister-In-Law Bonnie Faye Grimes and infant niece Laura Leigh Grimes.

She is survived by her daughter, Andrea Michelle Burns Mitchell, Granddaughter Alexis Breann Burns, Grandson Brenton Kai Mitchell; two Great Grandsons, Emmanuel Cruz Guerrero and Samuel Jesus Guerrero; Brother Larry Osborne Grimes and wife Judy; a special niece Quincey Grimes Rayfield and husband Brent; two nephews Harlan Glenn Grimes and wife

Sherry, Wesley and wife Tina Grimes, and a host of other family and friends. A Memorial Service will be held on August 1st at 6:00 p.m. at the Richmond United Methodist Church with the Pastor Bro. Jim Cross officiating. Immediately after the service, we will celebrate Nancy's life with a potluck dinner in the fellowship hall.
