“ What do you say about a women that basically helped raise you. Our families were together at birthdays, holidays, and on hunting trips. I think she even changed my diapers! She was an unbelievably kind and caring women, and if you knew her you loved her. She always had a kind word and a smile, no matter the circumstance. I feel for my adopted brothers and sisters as they go through this difficult time, because someone as sweet as Nan is hard to let go. The only solice is that she is with Jesus and her beloved husband Robert, which is always where she wanted to be. God Bless Robert Jr., Curtiss, John, Rhonda and Carla, along with their families. Your parents were very special, and I think about them when I think of my own. It's hard not to-most of my childhood memories are of them together, which I believe they are all together again. May the Lord bless you and give you peace.
