“ Condolences from the Walker family. My parents Lee and Amy cared very much for their lifelong friend, P.C.

“ I am deeply saddened to hear my cousin Pete Pyron passed away. I remember Pete at family gatherings talking, laughing (very distinctively), always having fun and sometimes stirring things up a little. At one reunion, a cooler of soft drinks was provided and Pete got me and two other younger cousins lined up to sell the drinks to the "older" folks. He would bring them over one by one telling them that we had something for them to see. By the time he was finished warming them up, they had no choice but to buy a drink. $$$

Another time, Pete and a few of his friends stopped by my house in Pine Bluff to say hello on the way to an Arkansas football game in Little Rock. They were all packed inside a red Corvair Monza. After a little talking and laughing, Pete walked over and opened up the trunk showing me a trunk full of iced down beer. That's how I learned about road trips and tailgating!

Rest in Peace Cousin Peter!
