“ *yes Reba was married to my Brother Sammy,
We were friend, always stayed good friends,
Came by my brothers room to give a useful speech, to Sam, as he was dying, some brought laughs,
But regardless cheered the room,
Always on her way home after her shift at Wadley,,*

*We have to many good memories to ever forget,
Yet we know of her hard times, jobs, planting bulbs while having a heart attack,
We love and will miss you Dear Friend,
Our Immediate Family will for ever Remember Reba Kay
Thanks, Ann Kelley Ward ,,,,,,, R I P*

“ I first met Reba while working at the papermill in Ashdown. She will never be forgotten by us or our children. She became like family. One of our fondest memories was when she went with us to a church convention in Dallas. The children did not want to go to church that day. She took her boys (Todd and Brian) our three (Kaye, Marcus, and Derek) to spend the day at Six Flags while we went to the day service. She also became member our church and sang in the choir until she moved to Ashdown to live with her mother.
