“ Ricky was a long-time friend. He helped me so much in my Christian walk, sharing with me the Word always. If you asked him something about God his answer was always what the Word says. We NEVER spent a day together where the Lord wasn't in the center.

After he moved states away we had to communicate through FB messenger because his phone service was poor. I don't think we left anything unsaid. We were so grateful that God had brought us together even until the end. Good news is, he's still in my future! I loved him very much and he loved his family tremendously and was so proud of his children.

He's now with the one he loved the most.
