“ We may have lived in different states and miles apart the last 16 years but that didn't keep us from staying in touch through those weekly phone calls of just say hi and catching up. He was the most caring and kind person I ever knew and he didn't hesitate in expressing himself by always ending the phone conversation with "Love you". Through all of his months of fighting cancer, going through chemo, radiation, stays in hospital and rehab he never once complained but just faced the whole thing with such bravery. He was truly one of a kind. He may have left this world but he never left us empty handed. He left us with so many years of great memories and laughs. I was so blessed to have him for a brother. He will never be forgotten. RIP Sal till we meet again.

“ Sal was the most kind - hearted, giving, humble person I have ever known. He was a wonderful brother and friend. He always thought of others above himself. He loved his family and others very much and showed it with his kind words and actions. He will be greatly missed by myself and many others.
