I shared a dream with my sis. That was to sit on the front porch in our rocking chairs with a glass of tea and watch our kids and our grandkids share a picnic on the front lawn. If I can say one thing about my sis is that she loved James and Allen more than life itself. Your love will live through those you left behind. Hold a chair for me sis.

“ Who am I going to call when I have made all the wrong choices again. Who is going to say, it is ok Sis. We will get through this together. We're going to be ok. Who is going to say I love you sis. I'll talk to you soon. There will be no more long talks or planned dreams. No one will ever take your place. I love you Sis.
