“ Shawn has been on my mind heavily today. Man, what a tragedy! If only I could turn back the hands of time and save him from doing what he did. Words cannot describe how deep in pain so many of us are. He was such a special boy, so sweet. The last time I saw him, he was with Linda in the band hall. The look in his eyes that day, I'll never forget. He looked... Tired. Just tired. Then, he and Linda walked out of the door. I never got to see him again. I didn't go to his funeral or his wake. I was afraid of seeing so many other people express the same pain I was hiding. I would if I could. Just to see him one last time. Now, I visit his resting place. The first time I did, I sent a kiss to him along with a few tears. To the whole Peacock family and everyone else who was effected by this, God is with you. May you forever let the memories of this beautiful individual forever live, and may God's warm, comforting love surround you. Amen.

“ Chester, My heart felt so heavy when I heard this news. What an awful tragedy for any mother to endure. Knowing you, I'm sure Shawn was loved very much. Take comfort in that fact - that he did not leave without knowing a mother's love. I pray that you and your family will continue to grow stronger as time continues on. Love you always, Coop

“ Dear Peacock family. I am very sorry about Your loss. My prayers are with everyone of You that knew him. I knew him because he was in one of my classes. I remembered when I first told my story in the class with him. It was awesome. May the good Lord be with You all.

“ you told me you wanted go to Harvard,
I'm now doing this for you.
I promise you,
I'll try my very best to fulfil your dream.
I miss you everyday.
I didn't grieve out loud like everyone else when you were gone
I had been holding it down
I just realised grief is like a manure
if you spread it out it fertilises.
if you leave it in a big pile
it smells like hell
life's hell without you.

“ Shawn was an amazing friend to have. He was always there when I needed to talk. He would always keep asking till I told him. He used to ride my bus and always rap Eminem songs. If only I could have seen the hurt he was hiding under that beautiful smile. Shawn was always cheerful and in a good mood. He was honest and always helped me with anything. Shawn was one of a kind, a true friend. Everyone loves him. He'll be missed but we'll see him again. I love you Shawn.

“ Shawn was my everything. I love him with all I have and I losing him is by god the worst thing that could've happened. There are so many amazing memories I am allowed to share with him but I remember the day he died. His last words to me were " I love you baby girl". He will always and forever be in my heart. I miss you so much and being without you in this cold world is terrible, but as I promised I'll live a good life for the both of us Prayers to his family, please stay strong ?

“ Shawn will be missed and will always be loved! He was a ray of sunshine when he came to the salon to get his haircut. He made my little ladies laugh and they just thought he was the cutest fellow they had seen. He always wanted to look his best!
