“ Who was my first word when Jeffery told me you had passed away. No matter where or when I saw you you always had a smile on your face. Seeing you a few weeks after my late husband passed away I will never forget the words you spoke to me. You will be forever missed but always in our hearts. Praying for the family and friends.

“ This man right here, taught me so much growing up, and was hard on me because he wanted me to realize life isn't going to hold me a single thing. My dad is a man with the biggest heart, and even one conversation with him would spark a lifetime friendship. I just pray you continue to watch over me, my siblings, and grandchildren, and we can give this life everything we have to continue to make you proud. Rest easy pops❤️
