“ Farewell to a wonderful uncle, a family rock and a real cowboy! I am very grateful to him because he provided food, comfort & advise during some really hard, thin times for me, my mother, his sister Carmen Cowling. He used to scare me to death when we would ride with him in a vehicle because Theo believed in looking into your eyes when he was talking to you even at the risk of an occasional glance at the road in front of him, LOL!! I remember many days of horseback riding with him and many of my cousins and watching him work cows with his brothers when I was just a small child. My wife had the privilege of having him as a patient after he had a stroke and said he would be waiting at the therapy room door to open each day, a testimony of his work ethic. I am privileged to have you as an uncle and will see you in the afterlife. i know you will be telling Jesus one of your many stories as if he didn't already know but he will be listening attentively because he loves you and knows you followed his blueprint for life.

I love you,
