

Toni Lynn Cobb

February 15, 1956 - December 16, 2019

Toni Lynn Birmingham Cobb, 63, of Ashdown gained her angel wings on Monday, December 16, 2019. She was born in Texarkana, AR to Tony and Helen Birmingham.

She graduated high school at Arkansas High School in 1974 and began college at Texarkana Community College and received her Master's Degree from Texas A&M University – Texarkana. Toni was passionate and strong in her faith loving her Lord and Savior. She shared her faith every chance she got and prayed for everyone she knew fervently and relentlessly. She also loved her family with her whole heart. Her children and grandchildren were her biggest blessings.

“ I was saddened to learn of Toni's passing. I had the privilege of watching her grow up from her pre-teen years to her time in college, as we were members of the same church at the time. From the time she was a middle-school student to adulthood, she was always the most positive, cordial, courteous, and endearing person one would ever hope to meet. I had seen her infrequently in the past several years, but when I would occasionally see her at a store or restaurantt, she was still the same precious Toni. Mark and family, my sincerest sympathy to you. I know that you will find great solace in knowing the impact swath that she has left in the lives of so many that she touched.

*Blessings and peace to you.

“ just a memory of toni to me is her always smiling face and her sweet nature. i don't imagine there was anyone aswe grew up who didn't like toni. you could always see in her her love for others. i think of her and mark doing the charleston at y-teen dances. one could watch them all night. i'd only seen toni a couple of times lately and she still was the sweet individual she'd always been. this world will be a darker place in her absence, but Heaven will shine brighter now. may God give peace to her family.

“ Toni was a friend and then became my sister in-law . Such a loving kind gentle soul . Truly beautiful inside and out . I loved her dearly and will miss her so much . She had a radiant smile and infectious laughter that made you laugh with her . How she loved her husband Mark and her sons and their families . Her two daughters in-law were just like her own cause she couldn't have loved them more . But her eyes would really light up when she talked about her grandchildren. My sweet Toni love and miss you but I know you're with our Lord and savior and your Mom and Dad and Pam .

“ I remember Toni Lynn, Pam, Jerry and me going to visit Moma Tene to them and Aunt Tene to Jerry and me. They lived in Hot Springs and there was a swimming pool right by their Trailer and we had so many happy times swimming the day away.

God Bless and keep you all and I will keep you close at heart and in my prayers.
