“ *Sweet, dear Linda
I never had the chance to meet Ulices, but just reading what others wrote about him I can tell I missed knowing a fine person. I'm so glad you had him for the love of your life. May you be comforted by your family, friends and our Heavenly Father at this sad time. Much love, Gail*

Gwen Roland - Meansville, GA - Friend of Linda Davis Hopkins - December 26, 2015 at 12:00 AM

“ *I never knew Ulices in person only by phone and by way of Linda his wife who has been a friend of mine since middle school. It is hard to say something about someone you didn't know well but this--if Linda loved him he had to be a good man and I know he will be missed. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you “ Ulice, Since you moved to Arkansas, I haven't seen you that much But always made an effort to come Visit when I got the chance.. We have many memories as children growing up and All are good memories... You were always kind, caring, loving, funny, and such a back woods hillybilly. You were yourself always and never pretended to be otherwise.. You loved life and family.. You loved fishing and hunting and those old dang hogs.... But all this above tells what kind of person you have always been.. you would help anyone who asked for it and give them your shirt off your back or your last bite of food.. GOD received a wonderful, Man on when he called you home.. Your family will miss you dearly. Linda is a very strong person. you both were so much alike in many ways.. I will be Praying for Linda and Your Family. Siblings cousins etc.. May You Spread your Angel Wings and FLY HIGH This is Not GOOD BYE,, This is see you later Old Bear.. Till we meet again... GOD SPEED..
