“ Your mother will be greatly missed by all who knew her . She was a special lady and it was a privilege to know her . I pray that I may get to see her once again , if God allows that . It's great to know she is no longer in pain or misery and is with her loved ones who went before her .

There are no words to describe how I'm feeling today or how much you'll be missed. I love you so much, 61 years with you was not enough. May you rest in the Glory if God. And give Daddy a hug for me 😍

“ Verna was always ready to lend a smile. I recall us working together on crochet projects (lapghans) for the local nursing home residents. I even crocheted during our church service...(shhh)! We enjoyed comparing yarns and patterns. All who knew her loved her... praying for her family during this difficult time. Only a moment compared to eternity will pass and we all will be united again. 💜
