“ Von was my classmate at school! She would always take me to work after school if they called me to work and I didn't have a way because we lived in Arden and I only drove when I knew I was working! Always took me and never once asked for any gas money! She has been my mailwoman for several years and ALWAYS did an excellent job! I got to talk to her a lot! I was so shocked and saddened to hear the news! I was out of town when this happened and so saddened to hear about it! My condolences to her family!

Hello Mz Peggy,
I am so sorry for your loss; Von was my friend and I loved her. I spent many an hour sitting on the store's counter talking to you or Reuben or cutting up with Von and Lynn. Those memories are precious to me and I miss Reuben, Roger, and now Von. I will tell you a secret: when Von moved out into her first apartment, we hung out together. I remember asking God why that I could not fall in love with Von for she had such a sweet and mellow soul. The answer was Roger Rose, a good man and the man that Von was destined to marry. Thank you and Reuben for having and raising Von to be Von. Von's smile was so beautiful and so contagious. It did not matter how bad that you felt, when Von smiled at you, the world brightened. Love to your entire family,

“ To the family of this beautiful soul,
What a precious lady she was. The many chats we shared out by the mailbox. Always Always rain or shine she was smiling and offered comfort and a good laugh. She shall be missed by all. Ashdown is less bright as this wonderful friend joined the heavenly host. R.I.P. Von ...

“ This breaks my heart and still can't believe it. I have known Von since 5 years old. Started out the 1st grade and on through the 12th grade. I can't say enough great things about her. She was the same sweet girl everywhere you saw her. She and Roger and all the Castlemans are once again together in heaven
RIP MY SWEET FRIEND TILL WE MEET AGAIN.

My husband also was a lifelong childhood friend of Von. He and Roger had many good times together hunting. We both thought the world of Von and Roger and like everyone else, we are shocked and deeply saddened. Your momma was a sweet, sweet lady. Julie & David Tabler
