

Zachary Kyle Johnson

April 10, 1986 - March 20, 2024

Zachary Kyle Johnson, 37, was born April 10, 1986 in Texarkana, TX. He was a manager at Bogey's in Ashdown. He resided in Ashdown until March 20, 2024, when he left his earthly home peacefully. Zach was preceded in death by his beloved 'Nana', Cynthia Booth, and many other cherished relatives.

Zach was born and raised in Ashdown and graduated in 2004. He then attended college at the University of Central Arkansas and was also a fraternity brother with Sigma Nu during that time. Zach was a beacon of kindness with a gentle soul that touched everyone he knew. His laughter echoed through our home and his workplace. Zach was a simple guy that was loving life and life was loving him. He was passionate about many things - too many to list them all. He loved his family beyond any measure of expression and had an unbreakable bond with his brother Nik especially when it came to their love of music. He loved his nieces and nephews with all his heart and they adored and looked up to their Uncle Zach. He loved his co-workers and treated them like his family because that's what they were to him. He was known for his "Zach Facts" that he couldn't wait to share with anyone that would listen to him. Those that had the privilege of hearing those "Zach facts" will miss them tremendously.

He loved his fur-babies, Khajiit and MaoMao which were both rescued strays. He was devoted to helping rescue as many stray and abandoned animals as he could. It made his heart happy that he could make a difference in their life no matter how small it was. Zach made connections with the homeless and the less fortunate that he came in contact with all the time. He helped them in ways some wouldn't understand or be willing to. He had compassion for them and it showed. Zach will always be remembered for that compassion and his willingness to go the extra mile for the people he loved and cared about. That kindness will continue to inspire all those that knew him and whose lives he touched.

Please join the family at Madden Funeral Home Chapel in Ashdown, AR in a celebration of life / memorial service on April 6, 2024, at 1 pm. There will be an open visitation prior to that for anyone that would like to come in, sit and visit. Everyone and anyone is welcome to join the family for this. To honor his memory, the family and his co-workers have set up an account at Red River Employees CU in Ashdown. Any contributions to that account will be donated in his memory to the help of rescued pets and the low cost spay/neutuer program that was his passion.

“ Zach, I love you, and you will be sorely missed. I'll see you on the other side, goatbro. (silly inside joke)

Zach was a loving person, he always projected that out from his heart. Zach brought joy to any room. Zach was one of the most peaceful people I have ever had the privilege of knowing. Zach was a patient person, not quick to anger. I don't think I ever saw him angry once in my entire life, and I have known Zach for most of my life. Zach was such a kind person, I never have heard him say a harsh word toward someone, and he was quick to help anyone. Zach was a good person. Zach was a faithful friend. Zach was gentle and I am glad to have known him. I will never forget him. I love you, Zach. Rest in peace.

“ Too many life lasting memories made in the shop in the corner. More games of domino's than one could possibly imagine. Countless conversations of wise words spoken as well as all the drunken laughter that filled that shop on any given night. We looked forward to him coming home from college to visit like it was a holiday.. Out of all the hours spend with ole Zach I can honestly say I've never seen him mad angry or anything of that nature and that is 1 of the most respected traits he had at least in my book because you could live 5 lifetimes and only be blessed to meet a all around positive, loving, caring, and all around peaceful spirit like Zach. I hate that this world is now without you because the world needs so many more of you.. Rest Easy Brother You're truly free now bubba
